CHANGE OUR LIVES

The letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent, and that devoting time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor subsided a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart, if we really believe that Christ still may come upon us as a “thief at night” (1 Thessalonians 5:2). Does this mean that we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus.

A Message from Bishop Berg

General Dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains. These extraordinary times merit the use of this Apostolic power from our Bishop. It is not a sin to miss Sunday Mass during these circumstances. You may be able to attend a weekday Mass instead or continue to watch livestream or prerecorded Mass. Anyone in a higher at-risk category and anyone showing signs of illness, has these alternate means of worship and should be responsible toward the preservation of God's gift of life." We are still taking reservations for those who want to attend Sunday and weekday Masses. You may call Jamie Vigil at 719-250-6630 or call the office during the week and it will be given to Jamie. Father & Staff Thank You. Masks and Gloves are necessary to keep all concerned SAFE.

Bishop Berg has made the decision to replace the Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection with a second collection for OUR Diocesan Catholic Foundation. This will tie in with the Catholic Foundation's 25th Anniversary. This first annual collection for the Catholic Foundation is in response to the Covid-19 pandemic. Funds received by them will support our parishes through this difficult time.

YOU can be assured that 100% of the funds received from this collection will stay with in our Diocese.
