Prayer for Our Departed
Loved Ones

God Our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
You guide our lives, and by Your command, we return to dust. Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone. In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your Kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us together again in one family, to sing Your praise forever and ever.
Amen.

The Superbowl Board is Back

There is a Superbowl Board in the back of the Church. The cost is $25.00. Half of the winnings will go to our Church and the other half will go to the winner. If you are interested, please be sure to sign the board.

Announcements

Our little parish is truly blessed with all our parishioners who come together to support the church by your contributions and work to make sure we have our Sunday Mass. Thanks to all for your help and support. Over the past 101 years it has been strong Catholics, like all of you from our community and beyond, who have ensured Our Lady of Lourdes continues to grow and thrive. May God continue to bless our church and our community.

2nd Collection next weekend (February 1st and 2nd) will be for our Building Fund. Any amount is appreciated.

Volunteers Needed to Help with Snow Removal

If you are able, we are in need of volunteers to help with snow removal as needed. Please let Jim Vigil or the ushers know if you can help. Thank you to those who have been volunteering, we appreciate you so much! May God continue to bless you for assisting the Church.

PRAYER FOR HOPE

Lord Jesus, I pray this day for strength, because there are times when things get tough and I feel like quitting. Lord Jesus, I ask this day for the comforting reassurance of Your love, because there are times when people fail me, and I am tempted to lose hope. Lord Jesus, I seek this day for Your light to guide my steps, because there are times when life is confusing and difficult, and I lose my way. Help me, O Lord, to pick up the pieces, wipe my tears, face the sun, and start over again, for all is possible when I place my faith and trust in You, my Saving God. Amen.

How Sunday's Gospel Speaks to Daily Life (Part 2)

Practical Steps for Living the Gospel

To live the Gospel message, we must take concrete steps to integrate it into our daily lives. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Reflect Daily on the Word

Take time each day to meditate on Sunday's Gospel. Reread the passage, paying attention to any word or phrase that stands out to you. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you in understanding how it applies to your life.

2. Examine Your Actions

Consider how your daily choices align with the teachings of Christ. For example, are you practicing patience, kindness, and generosity? Are you striving to be a peacemaker in your relationships?

3. Incorporate Prayer and Service

Prayer helps us remain connected to God's will, while acts of service allow us to live out the Gospel in tangible ways. Volunteering at a local shelter, helping a neighbor in need, or simply listening to someone who is struggling are ways to bring Christ's love into the world.

4. Engage with Your Community

The Sunday Gospel often emphasizes the communal nature of our faith. Participate actively in your parish or faith community, whether through ministry, small groups, or social justice initiatives.

The Gospel's Relevance in Modern Times

Some may wonder how teachings written over 2,000 years ago can still be relevant today. The answer lies in the timeless nature of God's Word. Human struggles—fear, pride, selfishness, and the longing for love—remain the same across generations. The Gospel speaks to these universal experiences, offering hope and guidance. Take, for example, the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37). In a world often divided by race, religion, and politics, this story reminds us of the importance of compassion and solidarity. It challenges us to see beyond labels and to treat every person as our neighbor.

Similarly, Jesus' call to trust in God (e.g., Matthew 6:25-34) resonates in today's fast-paced, anxiety-ridden society. By inviting us to seek first the kingdom of God, He offers a path to peace amidst the uncertainties of life.

Bringing Sunday's Gospel into the Week

The true test of the Sunday Gospel is how we live it throughout the week. Each day presents opportunities to put Christ's teachings into practice. Whether it's being patient with a difficult coworker, reaching out to a friend in need, or simply being present to your family, these small acts of love and kindness embody the Gospel message.

Furthermore, sharing the Gospel with others can be a powerful witness. Discussing the Sunday readings with your family or friends can spark meaningful conversations and encourage one another to live out the faith.

Therefore, Sunday's Gospel is not just a text to be read or a sermon to be heard—it is a call to action. It challenges us to align our hearts and minds with the teachings of Christ, to grow in holiness, and to bring the kingdom of God to life in our everyday actions.

As we reflect on the Word of God, let us remember that we are not called to perfection but to faithful striving. Each step we take to live the Gospel message—no matter how small—brings us closer to the heart of Jesus and allows His light to shine more brightly in the world. Let this Sunday's Gospel be the beginning of a week filled with grace, purpose and a renewed commitment to walking in the footsteps of Christ.
