SOLEMNITY OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD - AUGUST 6TH

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves and he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents* here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah ."While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them,* then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." Then the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. Matthew 17:1-8

“From Altar to Action: Bringing Sunday’s Message into Your Week”

Each Sunday, we gather around the altar to be nourished by the Word of God and the Holy Eucharist. We sit, stand, listen, pray, and receive—often moved by the Gospel or inspired by the homily. But what happens after we leave the church? Does the message of Sunday stay with us, or do we leave it behind like a bulletin on the pew?

Our Christian journey is not limited to what happens inside the church building. The real test of faith begins when we step outside the doors. Sunday Mass is not the end of our weekly obligation—it is the beginning of our weekly mission. We are sent forth with the final words: “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.”

Living the Message

Bringing Sunday’s message into the week starts with reflection. After Mass, take a few moments to recall the readings or the homily. Ask yourself: What is God saying to me through today’s Word? How can I respond in my life this week? Write it down or discuss it with your family. This turns the Sunday liturgy into a foundation for personal and spiritual growth.

Prayer Beyond the Pew

Don’t let Sunday be your only prayer time. Carve out a few minutes each day—perhaps in the morning or before bed—to reflect on how you’ve lived out the Gospel. A simple daily prayer like, “Lord, help me to live today with love, patience, and purpose,” can keep your heart connected to the altar.

Witness Through Action

The altar nourishes us so we can go and be Christ’s presence in the world. That means bringing kindness to your workplace, patience to your family, and compassion to those in need. You don’t need to preach—your actions speak louder. A smile, a generous gesture, or a forgiving heart can be a reflection of the Eucharist we receive.

Small Acts, Big Impact

Sometimes we think following Jesus means doing something grand or public. But holiness is built in the ordinary: choosing not to gossip, helping a neighbor, reaching out to someone lonely, or giving time to a parish ministry. These are small but powerful ways to make faith alive in our daily lives.

The Altar Sends Us on Mission

The word “Mass” comes from the Latin “missa,” meaning “to be sent.” Each Sunday, we are sent into the world as disciples. The altar is not a stopping point—it’s a launching pad. What we receive from the Lord is meant to be shared with others. That’s how the Church grows—not just in numbers, but in love, mercy, and truth.

Let us remember: Sunday is more than just an obligation. It is a devotion and moment of encounter with the living Christ who calls us, equips us, and sends us. May we carry what we receive at the altar into every corner of our week—at home, at work, in school, and in our community—so that through us, others may encounter Christ.

Saint Francis Xavier, pray for us!
