St. Hilary of Poitiers (310–367) Doctor of the Church
Feast Day January 13th
How he viewed the Bible

Hilary emphasized uncovering the spiritual meaning of the text of the Bible rather than focusing solely on external details.

He maintained that the best student of the Bible does not “read his thoughts into the book” but lets the book reveal its own sense.

He taught that the Holy Spirit provides the light necessary to understand God’s self-revelation in Scripture.

He argues that heresies arose not from the Bible itself but from a “fault of the understanding” or a lack of proper interpretation.

“All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work.” 1 Tim 3:16-17

St. Anthony, Abbot

Feast Day of St. Anthony

January 17th

St. Anthony, Abbot (born around 251 AD, died 356 AD) was a Christian monk from Egypt. Anthony was one of the first Christian Monk to go live alone in the desert around 270 AD. This made him very famous. Stories about him facing challenges in the desert have inspired many art-works and books.

“The devil is afraid of us when we pray and make sacrifices. He is also afraid when we are humble and good. He is especially

THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS

Everything about our divine Lord is holy, including His Name. It was the Archangel Gabriel who first spoke the name of Jesus to His mother, “Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus” (Luke 1:31). The Archangel was only a messenger, so the name of Jesus was given to Him by the Father in Heaven. Saint Peter was one of the first Apostles to speak with authority in the Holy Name of Jesus when he healed a crippled man saying, “I have neither silver nor gold, but what I do have I give you: in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean, rise and walk” (Acts 3:6). Saint Paul also exalted the holy name of Jesus when he said, “...at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Philippians 2:9–10). Saint Paul preached with power in the name of Jesus so often that even some itinerant Jewish exorcists tried to imitate him by commanding demons, “I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches” (Acts 19:13). As you go about your day, anytime you feel anxious or fearful, speak the name of Jesus. Know and believe that the divine name of our Lord brings Him close to you and bestows His grace in abundance. -My Catholic Life

REBORN
YOU, YOUR CHILD AND THE HEART OF BAPTISM

Reborn | Trailer

Reborn explores the deeply personal power of Baptism, bringing to light the spiritual reality for parents and godparents and, most importantly, the child being baptized. Rendered with a cinematic beauty that's become the hallmark of the Augustine Institute's film productions, Reborn presents the foundation of the Church's teaching on Baptism, with a step-by-step explanation of the rite itself, including its profound place in Scripture and Tradition. Our parish has a free Formed subscription for you! Simply scan the QR code or visit formed.org/signup to create your account and select our parish to get free access to this content and much more!

The Baptism of the Lord: From the Crib to the Jordan

As we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we also bring the Christmas season to a close. From the joy of Bethlehem to the waters of the Jordan River, the Church invites us to contemplate a beautiful transition: the hidden life of Jesus gives way to His public mission. Christmas does not simply end—it sends us forth.

At the Jordan, Jesus steps into the water, not because He needs repentance, but because He chooses solidarity with us. He enters fully into our human condition. In that moment, heaven opens, the Holy Spirit descends like a dove, and the voice of the Father proclaims, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” This is a powerful revelation of who Jesus is—and who we are called to be in Him.

The Baptism of the Lord reminds us of our own baptism. Through water and the Spirit, we became children of God, members of Christ’s Body, and temples of the Holy Spirit. Our baptism was not just a ritual from the past; it is a living grace that shapes our present and our future. Each day, we are called to live out our baptismal identity—to reject sin, to choose love, and to walk as disciples of Christ.

As the Christmas season concludes, we are reminded that the light of Christmas does not fade; it is meant to shine in our daily lives. The Infant we adored in the manger is the same Lord who now walks among the people, healing, teaching, forgiving, and calling others to follow Him. The joy of Christmas finds its purpose in mission.

This feast also invites us to listen again to the Father’s words spoken over Jesus, words that are also meant for us: You are beloved. In a world that often measures worth by success, productivity, or status, our faith proclaims a deeper truth—our dignity comes from being loved by God. This assurance gives us the strength to face challenges, to persevere in faith, and to serve others with humility and compassion.

As we take down our Christmas decorations and return to ordinary time, let us not lose the spirit of Christmas. Instead, let us carry it forward—into our families, our workplaces, our parish, and our communities. Baptized in Christ, we are called to be signs of hope, bearers of peace, and witnesses of God’s love.

May this Feast of the Baptism of the Lord renew our commitment to live as beloved sons and daughters of God. And as the Christmas season comes to a close, may the grace it has given us continue to transform our lives throughout the year.
